WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JULY 28, 1908

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

LIKE'S A CHANGE, MAYBE.

Love, they say, at night is sweet;
Like some old and tender song—
But often it grows bitter if
Allowed to last too long.

Mr. John Carpenter, the genial young telegraph operator at the L. and N. Office here, who was seriously injured Monday morning by a horse kicking him in the face, rested fairly well last night.

Yesterday David Wilson disposed of a 52-pound catfish to Ed Whittington of Market street. The young whale was caught at the mouth of Big Three Mile on the Ohio side, and was hung on a trot line with a 5.0 hook.

The city yard in Second street extension is becoming quite an industrial plant and under the capable management of Commissioner Ben Smith is turning out some first-class work. He is now engaged in making 24-inch concrete sewer pipe to be used in city work and they have the appearance of being equal in quality to any foreign make.

We Have Trimmed Coal Prices to the Lowest Notch

And you cannot save more on next winter's supply than by buying now; waiting won't get you anything. Let us hear your voice over 'Phone No. 142. : : : : :

MAYSVILLE COAL COMPANY

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock a. m.

BE OPTIMISTIC!

With $1 corn, with 90c wheat, with 65c oats, with the Banks full of money ready to loan, with favorable crop reports from every section, with the sun shining and the birds singing, with nothing to do but work just the same as we used to, results will come. Mr. Farmer, things are coming your way right along. Stop your growling and come in and buy. Results are coming every day. The results you want are a good price for your crops and favorable weather. You are getting them. The results we want are plenty of customers and good, up-to-date, salable Goods. We have them. Our Buggy Sales have been a splendid success so far. Lots of satisfied customers around the different sections of the country can verify this statement. We still have some more on hand, good ones, and are determined to CLEAN UP. We don't want to have to carry over a SINGLE job this coming winter. Go they must, and to make them go price is not to be considered by us and, if the conditions demand it, actual cost. Try us.

MIKE BROWN The Square Deal Man

Ironton, Ohio, is to vote on local option early in September.

George Marshall, colored, who was found Monday morning on the right of way of the L. and N. road at Paris with his throat cut and stab in the neck, died from the effects of his wounds yesterday. His body arrived here this morning and was taken in charge by Myall & Dickson for burial.

CARRIGAN.

Monday morning the Stork visited the home of Mr. Thomas Jefferson Carrigan in East Third street, Sixth Ward, and presented his wife with twin girls—Belle Bryan Carrigan and Alma Taft Carrigan.

VENGEANCE

Wreaked By Night Riders—Walter Goodwin Shot From Ambush

HOPKINSVILLE, KY., July 27th.—As Walter Goodwin, who betrayed night riders' secrets in Trigg county, was returning home last night from a neighbor's house, he was fired on seven times by men lying in ambush. One bullet passed through his jaw and was extracted this morning from under his ear. His condition is serious.

Goodwin at the last term of Court told the names of seven men who with himself composed, he said, a night rider squad at Center Furnace and until recently he was under constant protection of soldiers.

Mr. Fred Williams continues very sick at his home in the Hill House.

Mrs. Leo Royce of West Third street and Mrs. Robert Jennings and daughter, Nina, visited Mrs. Taylor Malory of Hilltop yesterday.

SUCH IS FAME.

As Judge Taft made his way from his brother's house to the Sinton Hotel yesterday morning he was startled to behold portraits of himself nearly as large as a three-story-house in front of cigar stores. Over his genial face was the legend, "Everybody's Favorite," and underneath the words, "Judge Taft, the best five-cent cigar."

TOUGHS' MEETING-PLACE

Unwelcome Visitor Given a Cordial Reception By Hosts

Watkin's cut on the line of the L. and N. has long been a rendezvous for the worst element of both sexes, and the place has become notorious for fights and unseemly conduct.

Notwithstanding the county officers have rounded up and brought to the Bar of Justice innumerable members of the gang frequenting the place as a resort for the depraved it continues to flourish like a green bay tree.

There was something doing there yesterday judging from the disfigured face of George McDonald of the Sixth Ward.

George was evidently an unwelcome visitor and they proceeded to do him up in great shape. He received a stab under the right eye that was a sight to behold and it is possible he may lose the sight of the eye.

Monuments! Murray & Thomas.

Near Temple Hill Sunday, Vol Stone struck Clem Thomasson with a whisky jug, killing him.

Coadjutor Bishop David H. Greer is now the head of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York, occupying the position made vacant by the death of Bishop Potter. Rev. Mr. Greer is known as a "broad Church man." He is sixty-four years old and a man of pronounced scholarly attainments.

The infant child of William Barnett of Robertson county died of whooping cough. This is the twelfth death among children in that locality from this disease within the past few weeks. Four other children in Mr. Barnett's family have the disease and two of them are not expected to recover.

The Ashland Commercial says: "A. S. Conley of Blaine, Ky., has accepted a position as bookkeeper at the Citizens' Bank and Trust Company. Mr. Conley has been Cashier of the Bank of Blaine two years and is a young man of good habits and a popular Banker. He will make Ashland his home, and we welcome him and his wife to our city." Mr. Conley married Miss Mary Noyes of this city, and their friends will be glad to learn of his advancement.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN KEHOE AND HAGER

No Chance for a Misunderstanding or Difficulty at Cynthiana Gathering

CYNTHIANA, KY., July 27th.—Arrangements for the Harrison County Convention to be held here Saturday were agreed upon today by Kehoe and Hager.

There will be no chance for any misunderstanding or difficulty, as the convention will be held in the Courthouse yard with Hager's men on the right hand side and Kehoe's on the other. The gates will be kept by representatives of each man, who will count the vote as the voters come out.

Hager and Kehoe both spoke here today.

but not from the same platform, as Mr. Kehoe declined Hager's invitation to divide time.

Reed & Dawson, contractors, have completed about seven hundred feet of concrete sidewalk in Plum street that is first-class and up-to-date in every respect. When the brick street is put down Plum will be a real pretty thoroughfare.

Dave Breckinridge, who runs a colored barbershop at the corner of Union and Second streets, got into a dispute with a strange white man Sunday and during the argument received a serious stab in the left side. The stranger made his escape.

A diminutive young man named Jones, aged 22, about the size of a ten-year-old boy, while fooling around the river Sunday at Hunsicker's coal floats at the foot of Union street, fell into the river and sank twice before he was rescued by Mr. H. B. Adamson, who reached him just as he was about to go under a coal barge.

But a Few Weeks and Our Fall Goods Will Be Here

In fact, we are already receiving some. Of these we will speak later. What we want to say to you NOW is, that we have quite a number of our best Spring Suits and Coats and Vests on hand yet that we are anxious to close out regardless of cost. You will think so when we tell you that you can select any Suit in stock that has sold for $20, $25, $30 (there are quite a number of the latter) No Suit taken out on approval. Spot Cash when taken from the store. Money returned any time in ten days if you are displeased. We would like for you to investigate this "ad." These prices for this week only.
